The International Conference for the Advanced Professional Practice of Clinical Social Work (ICAPP-CSW) is an international organization dedicated to the advancement of clinical social work. It's mission is the promotion of independent and innovative thinking among clinical social workers in private and agency practice, or in academia. It serves as a forum for discussion and exchange of information and formulates programs to achieve these objectives. ICAPP-CSW has held conferences annually, since 1960, in interesting locations all over the world

ICAPP-CSW conferences have a unique, relaxed, and intimate format, unlike any other conference.

Papers are mailed to attendees for review prior to the conference so that the conference can be devoted to clinical discussion. Afternoons are free for socialization, group excursions, or personal relaxation. Life-long professional contacts are made.
